

ABOUT OUR People

John Rogers has returned from Florida.

Squire Fletcher of Fletcher was in town last week.

Mrs. Forrest has returned from her winter's visit to Florida.

R. C. Clark has returned from a business trip to Salem, Ohio.

A defective flue caused a slight blaze and much excitement at Jerome Gilreath's home on Friday. The loss was small.

Miss Jennie Few and Mr. Harry Hutton Ewbank will be married at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday afternoon, April 28, at three o'clock.

A party of eight or ten travel stained motor-cyclists from Asheville were a very noticeable feature of Main street, Sunday, the amount of dust and noise resulting being equal to that of a first-class circus.

One of the signs of the nearness of the coming season was the passing through town last week of a big bunch of livery stable stock and vehicles. Some thirty odd horses and ponies were in the string.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Nottingham, whose wedding Saturday evening at Asheville was one of the social events of the Spring months, arrived here about three o'clock Sunday morning in a big motor car, and are stopping at the Gates. Mrs. Nottingham was Miss Lucy Taylor Redwood, of Asheville, and Mr. Nottingham is a prominent planter of Castlake, Va.

We accommodate all classes of people. Many persons keep their money here as a permanent investment—we pay four per cent. interest. Others deposit whatever cash they have and pay all bills by check—it's the safe way and far more convenient. Others keep their idle money here, awaiting investment. As lenders, we stand ready to aid any one who is building up a legitimate business.

STOP PAYING RENT

Your landlord is the only one who profits by it. You can't sell your rent receipts. Every dollar paid for rent is GONE.

OWN YOUR OWN HOME

You can build a home for less than you can rent one; then at the end of from six to seven years it is YOURS, and paid for with less than rent money. We will be glad to explain the plan to you if you will call at our office in the Wanteska Trust and Banking Company building.
